

Mrs. Thomas Robinson and Mrs. Henry T. Fleitman at the dedication of the war memorial at the Mackay estate, Roslyn, L. I. Paul Thompson.

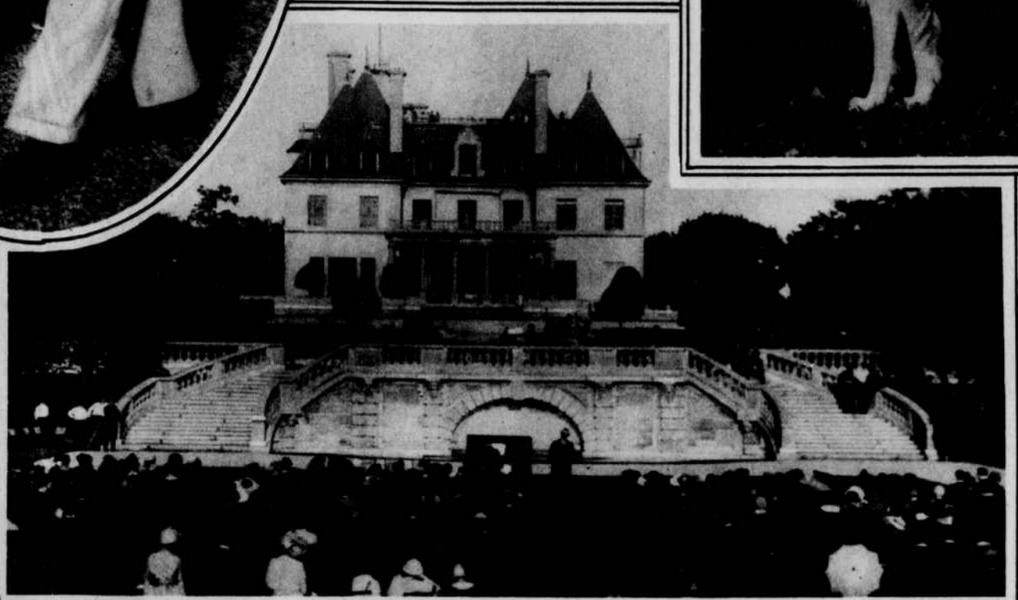

Miss Elin Mackay and Mr. Robert Gray, photographed last Sunday at Harbor Hill. Herald Staff Photo.

Irish terrier, Champion Blarney Beekside Begorra, shown at the Tuxedo dog show and owned by Mrs. A. G. Ball. Edwin Levick.

Above—The Misses Edith and Katherine Comly at the Tuxedo show with Albert Payson Terhune's Champion Sonnybark Sigurd. Edwin Levick.

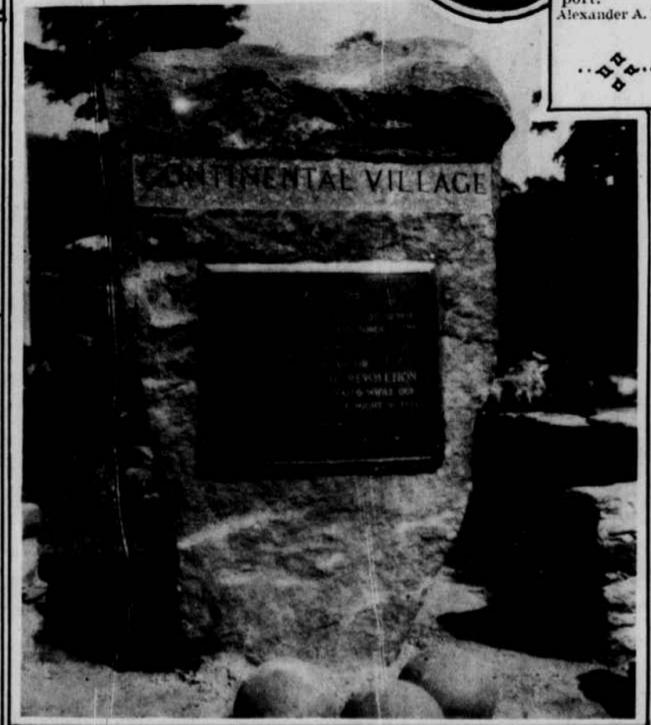

At left—Part of the gathering of 2,000 at the Mackay estate, Roslyn, L. I., who witnessed the dedication of a war memorial last Sunday. Herald Staff Photo.

Mr. William H. Vanderbilt, son of the late Alfred G. Vanderbilt, photographed at Newport. Alexander A. Brown

Above—Mr. Clarence H. Mackay, the host at the war memorial building ceremonies at Harbor Hill. Paul Thompson.

At right—This monument to the Mothers of the Revolution will be unveiled to-day at Continental Village, near Peekskill, N. Y.

Of course it's a Fatima

FATIMA

CIGARETTES

TWENTY for 25¢ —but taste the difference

LEGGITT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.